CURIOUS FACTS AROUT BLIND TOM .- Blind Tem's birthplace is Georgia, and he began to excite attention as a musician at the age of four years. All sounds afford him delight; even the crying of a chi'd causes him to dance about in a state of costasy. When at home he often bit and pinched his brothers and sisters to make them emit cries of pain. It kept away from a piano, he will beat against the wall, drag chairs about the room, and make all sorts of noises. When in London a flute was procured for him of a very complicated pattern, and having twenty two keys. He frequently rises up at night and plays this instrument, imitating upon it all sorts of sounds which he may hear at the time. Once when the agent attempted to make him stop playing the piano in a high-toned botel at three o'clock in the morning. Tom seized him and threw him through the door. In Washington he threw a man down stairs who came into his room. When at home in Georgia he lives in a building about two hundred yards from the house. and there remains alone with his piano. playing all day and night, like one possessed with madness. Bad weather has an effect upon his music. In cloudy, rainy seasons, he plays somemusic. In cloudy, rainy seasons, he plays some ever used for that class of diseases it purports to bre music in minor chords; and when the sun cure"—[H. F. Thigpan. shines and the birds sing, he indulges in waitzes and light music. Sometimes he will hammer away for hours, producing the mest horrible discords imaginable. Suddenly a change comes over him, and he indulges in magnificent burs s of harmony taken from the best productions of the masters. Since his childhood he has been an idiot, and he played nearly as well at the age of seven as he does now; but now his repertoire is much larger, as he can play anything he has ever heard. He now plays about 7,000 picces, and picks up new ones everywhere. It is a curious fact that he will not play any Sun-

He doubtless knows as well for sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Bro. and no superior. He doubtless knows as well what he is doing and why he is doing it and what he means to do next as any editorial guessing machine in the country. The democracy mean success, and are determined to win it if they possibly can do so; and they are too shrewd to quarrel, too placky to turn the white DRUGE & FAIRFAX STS. feather, and too hungry to abandon a chance so long as the game is in sight. And the republicans may as well make up their minds first as last that they have got to beat by hard work or be beaten, and nothing short of the hardest sort of work and the greatest possible union and harmony will prevent their being very handsomely whipped.

day school music if he can help it, having a great dislike for it.

A SENSIBLE Young MAN. - The sensible young man is now fiving near Council Bluffs, lowa. Not long ago he became involved in a quarrel with no less than five different men, and challenged each one of them to mortal combat. All accepted, and were upon the graund at once. Then the here of the affair said he wouldn't fight them all at once, but would fight the best man first. The five began discussing the question of who was the best man, and got to fighting. They struggled over the subject for about a quarter of an hour, the champion sitting on a log as umpire, and when the question was finally settled, the "best man" could have been whipped by anybody, and wasn't ready to fight. The challenger wa ked off with all the honors, and was proud and happy. This is the story, and is probably a lie.

A CONTRAST. - The Richmond State says. "Negroes in the South may commit rape, pillage farm-houses, bura barns, and perpetrate all manner of crimes, and yet there is no word of condemnation from radical newspapers; bu let a white man, or a body of white, be guilty of a crime, and immediately all the waite people of the South, who have suffered tong, and who have endured without raising a hand prople rebel, are charged with being disloyal to the government. And these papers are con trolled by white men who for money and office are willing to elevate the negro to supreme emitrol and drag down good men of their own race into the very dust.'

Lord Amberly's posthumous book, "An Analysis of Reinston Bohot, a is ereating a great sensation in London. The liberals claim that it is the severest blow Christianity has received suce the days of Tom Paine, owing its force more to the fact that it emanates from an Enghish nobleman than to its incrinsic weight. I'wo E glish dukes have recently prepared similar attacks upon the Christian system. But the orthodox make light of Lord Amberly and his book. The London Times says that he was but "a highly educated child," and that he had only skimmed over the questions he had assumed to solve.

A WOMAN'S I'WO ARGUMENTS. - Among the passengers on the train was a lady who carried a large basket. The conductor decided that the baggag was entirely too cumbersome to be allowed in the car, and politely informed her that she would be obliged to remove it to the baggage car. As he was about seizing the basket the lady showed him a picture, the sight of which had a magic effect in producing a change in his feeling. Before him were a pair of twins a few mouths old, who seemed to be supremely happy in their basket bed.
